Cumberland Academy of Georgia, Inc. Announces New Director of Admissions

New Atlanta School to Provide Tailored Learning Experience for all, including Students with High Functioning Asperger's Syndrome, Children on the Autism Spectrum, Learning Disabilities, and ADD/ADHD. Accepting enrollment applications now for the upcoming 2009-2010 school year

Cumberland Academy of Georgia, Inc., (www.cumberlandacademy.org), a new, fully accredited private, non-profit independent school dedicated to students with special needs, continues to grow in its third year with increased enrollment, enhanced programs, and new technology. With the continued growth Cumberland has hired a new Director of Admissions, Kathy Ellison. Ms. Ellison will be responsible for the recruitment, enrollment and retention of students.

“We are excited and pleased to have Ms. Ellison join our team,” said Ms. Debbi Scarborough, Cumberland Academy of Georgia Founder and Headmaster. “Kathy brings with her an excellent amount of experience, expertise and enthusiasm, which will help Cumberland Academy of Georgia better serve our Cumberland families and help continue our success.”

Prior to her new position, Kathy worked as Director of Admissions for Sophia Academy. Kathy is a graduate of the University of Memphis and has over 10 years of experience in the education field.

About Cumberland Academy of Georgia

At Cumberland, we want to take the stress out of academic learning; therefore, our classes are taught with each individual student in mind. We strive to teach each student Georgia Academic Standards, utilizing their preferred learning style. Our ultimate goal is for our students to become independent, successful young adults. To reach this goal, we are teaching our students to demonstrate appropriate interpersonal skills while working collaboratively in groups.

Cumberland Academy of Georgia, Inc. provides a tailored learning experience for students with high functioning Asperger's Syndrome, children on the Autism Spectrum, Learning Disabilities, and ADD/ADHD. With a low student-to-teacher ratio of 8 to 1, Cumberland Academy is designed for the needs of many students who do not learn well in traditional settings. Cumberland Academy is fully accredited and addresses the student's academic, emotional and social concerns through nurturing, innovative and challenging programs.

Cumberland Academy of Georgia, Inc. is currently taking applications from grades 4 through 12. We are located at 650 Mt. Vernon Hwy NE, Atlanta, GA 30328. For more information please contact Kathy Ellison, Director of Admissions, at 404.835.9000 or email kathy.ellison@cumberlandacademy.org
